This payment covers costs for the application processing stage. This fee includes the initial support, application review, preparation of the DS-2019 and the submission of the application. Rian will assist the applicant prepare for the interview with the US Department of State.

This payment does not constitute a successful application. The payment only enables the applicant to submit their application to the US Department of State. The US Department of State determines eligibility and approval, or denial of the application.

This APP payment to Rian is non-refundable, even if the application is unsuccessful.

Payment 2: Program Management Payment (PMP) - $750.

This payment is made after Rian accepts the applicant. It includes Rian's program support throughout the entire duration of the visa program. It includes the maintenance of applicant's SEVIS records to ensure the applicant remains in full compliance with the US Department of State regulations. Rian will issue and mail the DS-2019 certificate.

If the applicant is refused a visa at the Embassy/Consulate, or withdraws from the program before travel to the U.S, this payment will be refunded less a $30 admin fee, therefore a refund of $720. The fee is not refundable after the applicant lands in the US and commences their program.

Refund policy - Note: the PMP payment of $750 is refundable, less the $30 transaction fee (so $720 due), if you do not receive a visa for any reason or not travel to the U.S. for any reason on the visa.

This policy will be governed by applicable US federal and state (Massachusetts) laws and regulations and disputes must be adjudicated in the appropriate US federal or state (Massachusetts) court.
